about Angela.

Angela is an Accredited Specialist in Immigration Law who handles a myriad of complex migration issues including monitoring and sanctions, character and health waivers, visa compliance and cancellations, as well as employer-sponsored migration.

She started her career in law at the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions in Brisbane, Queensland before working at a boutique law firm, where she discovered her passion for immigration law. Since this time, Angela has practiced exclusively in Immigration Law. Angela worked at Fragomen (Australia), a global immigration law firm where she worked with clients from a range of industries. She continued her focus in the corporate sector at KPMG where she had the opportunity to partner with colleagues from a range of other sectors to provide full-service offerings to clients to supplement their immigration needs. Angela understands the intersections that Immigration Law has with other areas of law and practice which allows her to cater to the commercial realities of her clients.

One of Angela's strongest suits is that she can manage high-volume immigration caseloads. With support from an engagement team, she can deliver significant volume at speed. Outside the transactional arena, Angela runs appeals both at the merits review and judicial review level, prepares supporting legal submissions, and consults with clients.

Eager to give back and share her experiences with others, Angela has, and continues to, mentor and train current and aspiring Immigration Lawyers and Registered Migration Agents (RMA), through supervision of more junior lawyers as well as the administration of the firm's graduate program.

Our standard migration planning session is around 45 - 60 mins, inclusive of the initial 15-20 mins being the fact finding so we could better assess your current migration situation. Depending on your migration goals, we will provide you with a tailored advice with multiple strategies depending on the following three factors:

- How fast v how slow
- How cheap v how expensive
- How easy v how difficult post mps.

As our firm's practice, you may request a complimentary summary email recapping all the strategies we have discussed in the meeting.

We understand the Australian migration environment is complex and it may take some time for you to make a decision. Therefore, we hope our summary offers the clarity that most clients need after the lengthy discussion and before reaching a final decision.

what people say.

"As our products require workers with unique talents found in Japan, Taiwan and China, Agape Henry Crux has been representing us with overcoming shortages of skilled workers and an answer to finding a solution to our foreign worker's lack of English and formal qualifications. Most importantly, the answer to staff retention without having to be subjected to the high salary requirements in certain migration program"
